

Women Empowered Entrepreneurship Event

women Empowered

The Panellists, Sally Overhead of Mojomums, Kiran Sharma, Managing Director of KIKIT Ltd and Manager to singer Prince, Anjali Pathak, Brand Ambassador Culinary Development Patak's Foods, Chef & Food Writer and Rupinder Virdee Director of Revolution Creative Agency shared their journeys on how they started and grew successful businesses.

Alpesh Patel Co-author, 'Our Turn: The ultimate start-up guide for female entrepreneurs' and founder of Praefinium Partners spoke passionately about the need for more women entrepreneurs. Reena Ranger, chairwoman and co-founder of WE, said that the organization thought that the traditional definition of entrepreneur had evolved and now with the boom entrepreneurial landscape had changed.

Women are turning their hobbies into income streams or are taking their formal job training one step further and starting up their own businesses. Mona Remtulla, co-founder of WE, introduced the panel as diverse and was sure that those present who had wanted to find their special something would, with the words and wisdom of the panelists, be encouraged and empowered to take that next step.

Women empowered had collaborated with TIE UK, a forum for entrepreneurs, as their mentoring partners and Deepali Nangia the mumpreneur of Empower who provided career and business support to working mums.

The evening ended with those who attended browsing through the stalls that were being championed by WE all of which were started up by women entrepreneurs.
